Neil E. Wettermann
Investigator
House Committee on Internal Security
Washington, D. C.

Dear Neil:

Please accept my congratulations on the occasion of your retirement from the Committee on Internal Security.

I know you are leaving with the satisfaction of having done an outstanding job for the past ten years on work that is vital to your country. I can attest that you have brought to your work the invaluable attributes of dedication, enthusiasm, and imagination and I am personally indebted to you for your excellent ideas which culminated in several of our best hearings during the 91st Congress.

In your case I am sure retirement will mean merely working at something you haven't done before. I hope, however, that you will train yourself to slow down to a "retirement" pace and enjoy whatever you will choose to occupy your time.

Don't every hesitate to call on me for assistance of any kind.

With best wishes,

Robert M. Horner,
Chief Investigator
